The judicial convention met at Wellington today. Colonel S. E. Fink of Winfield was chosen chairman of the convention. The first fifteen ballots stood: Dey 14, Swarts 7, Troupe 7, Buckmant. The sixteenth ballot was as follows: Dey 14, Swarts 9, Troupe 6. Buckman's vote and one of Troupe's going to Swarts. Swarts was nominated on the twenty-fourth ballot, he receiving fifteen votes. The nomination was made unanimous. C. L. Swarts was born at ways stand the test of careful analysis.
